*We who were born in country places
Far from cities and shining faces,
We have a birthright no man can sell,
And a secret joy no man can tell.*

*For we are kindred to country things;
the wild duck's flight & the owl's white wings,
the pike & the salmon,
the bull & the horse,
the curlew's cry
& the smell of gorse,*

*Pride of trees, swiftness of streams,
Magic of frost have shaped our dreams
No baser vision their spirits fills Who walk by right on the naked hills.*
